

The three speakers will provide the audience with a comprehensive look at the overall state of alternatives market. They will center on three industries in the alts space – specifically private equity, private credit, and hard money lending. This will provide participants a better understanding of the market place and how they can better enhance their clients portfolios through the potential addition of these types of markets.