

Meera Pandit will provide an update on the current state of markets and the economy. She will discuss topics including recession risk, inflation, unemployment and rates. Meera will also review risks and opportunities that we see across equities, fixed income and alternative asset classes.